Meet PCA’s Teachers & Staff 2019-2020
We are excited to introduce the fabulous teachers and staff who make PCA such a great place to call home.

God has been moving at PCA this summer and creating new and exciting opportunities for us and our students. Part of our excitement has been the addition of wonderful educators who have been a huge blessing to us already.

Our teachers love the Lord, are highly credentialed, and have a gift for nurturing and inspiring children. They also bring a wealth of knowledge and experience in the field of education to PCA.

Here’s a sneak peak at who they are...

Dr. Julia Elliott
Head of School
Administration

Dr. Julia Elliott, Head of School

Dr. Julia Elliott has been our Head of School for three years. In addition to being experienced in Christian school administration, she is also an experienced classroom teacher and technology/library media specialist.

Dr. Elliott currently serves on the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) Accreditation Commission for the State of Florida. She has also served as District Representative for ACSI in Dade and Broward Counties, chaired numerous AdvancedEd and ACSI accreditation teams, and served as Vice President for the Foreign Language Council in Jacksonville. She received a Bachelor’s Degree in Elementary Education and a Master of Education in Educational Leadership from the University of North Florida, as well as a Specialist degree in Information Studies from Florida State University. She later earned her doctorate degree from Liberty University in Educational Leadership.

Born to missionaries, Dr. Elliott spent her early years in Tours, France; Ivory Coast, West Africa; and French Guiana, South America. She came to the US when she started college. She is married to her husband, Kevin, for almost 30 years. Together, they have one child, Christopher, who will be entering 3rd grade at PCA.

Mrs. Jean Osman, Preschool & Administrative Director

Mrs. Jean Osman has been at PCA for over 30 years. Throughout her tenure at the school, she has served in multiple capacities, including preschool director, acting principal, and school administrator. Mrs. Osman is degreed in Elementary Education.

She began her relationship with PCA as a parent, then transitioned into a teaching position, and later into administration, where she currently serves. Her attention to detail, strong administrative skills, and wealth of knowledge have been a huge blessing to the PCA staff.

Mrs. Osman has dedicated her life to educating children in a Christ-centered, fun, and nurturing manner. Born and raised in Hialeah, Florida, she has been married for 39 years and has two children and 5 grandchildren. Her favorite Bible verse is Hebrews 13:8.
Ms. Tiffany Gumbel, Finance Director

Ms. Tiffany Gumbel serves as PCA’s finance director with a Master’s degree in Business Administration, an undergraduate degree in Accounting with a concentration in Finance, and an extensive background in her field.

She began as a tax auditor for the Internal Revenue Service and later moved into the private sector.

In 2013, Ms. Gumbel's family moved to Davie and her three children began attending PCA. They have now all graduated and attend high school. Ms. Gumbel was an active member of our Parent Club, has coached girls soccer, and has also served in many other volunteer roles at PCA.

Ms. Gumbel is passionate about God and family, and is grateful to be part of a school guiding children to reach their God potential.

Ms. Jennifer Robinson, Academic Dean & Discipline

Ms. Jennifer Robinson has 37 years of experience working as an educator in a variety of public and private settings with diverse student populations from birth through high school. Throughout her career in education, she has served as a guidance counselor, classroom teacher, summer camp director, interim assistant principal, Math Olympics chairperson, Spelling Bee coordinator, curriculum director, and academic dean.

She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology and Education from Trinity International University. During her career she received Guidance Counselor of the year (1984) at Eight Mile Rock High School, Teacher of the Year (1989) at Horeb Christian School, and Teacher of the Year (2011) at Citrus Park Christian School.

She has a daughter, Jessenia, who works in health care and also attended PCA.
Administration

Mrs. Nicole Rodriguez, Administrative Assistant

Nicole Rodriguez has been at PCA for almost two years after almost 11 years at the Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law where she served as the Building Operations/Facilities Manager. She has a Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration with additional educational experience in Early Childhood and Preschool Education.

Nicole is happily married to her husband, Chris, of ten years, and together they have two children, Sophia and Cameron, who both attend PCA. With a passion for ministry, Nicole and her family have been attending Potential Church since 2008.

Ms. Jeralin Felipe, Admissions Director

Ms. Jeralin Felipe has been part of the administrative team at PCA since 2009 and the Director of Admissions since 2013.

Her role oversees all aspects of admissions and student enrollment.

Ms. Felipe received a diploma in Homeopathy. Her daughter, Bianca, attended PCA since she was two-years-old and is now entering her second year of high school in Fort Lauderdale.
Mrs. Marilyn Iglesias, Human Resources, Registrar, and IT

Mrs. Marilyn Iglesias has been on staff at PCA for over 20 years. Throughout the years, Mrs. Iglesias has led numerous roles, including human resources director, registrar, IT manager, substitute teacher coordinator, and many others.

Mrs. Iglesias manages the day-to-day responsibilities of the human resources department, serves as lead registrar, handles IT issues, and also runs the IT at chapels and other PCA performances.

She has been married to her husband, Jose, for 35 years, and together they have two children: Joey, who is an officer in the Navy, and Kristen, who recently graduated from law school at NYU and is now an attorney in New York. Both children are PCA alumni.

Mrs. Eileen Trimble, Assistant to the Head of School, Communications, MS Electives Teacher

Mrs. Eileen Trimble is responsible for the day-to-day assistance of the administrative office. She also handles communications, design, website, and general marketing.

Mrs. Trimble holds a BS degree in Communications from the University of Miami, with a double major in Broadcast Journalism and Psychology. She has also taken Masters level courses in business administration and pastoral counseling. She worked many years in the media and PR industry before finding her calling in ministry. She started serving at Potential Church in 2009, worked for the church full-time for four years, and returned to PCA in 2016.

Mrs. Trimble is married to her husband, Kenneth, and together they have four children, two of which have been attending PCA for eight years.
Ms. Barbie Moreira, Receptionist

Ms. Barbie Moreira joined PCA last year as the school’s receptionist after having worked in adult education for over 25 years.

She is also an active and loyal volunteer at Potential Church, where she serves as a leader in the First Impressions ministry.

In her spare time, Barbie leads a women’s Bible study at her home. She is the proud mother of three adult children and two young grandchildren.
Mr. Brian Combs, Security Officer, Strong Line Security Services

Mr. Brian Combs is an experienced security officer with over five years in the field. He has been working at PCA for three years, and is in charge of all security matters, ensuring the safety and protection of our students and staff.

Born and raised in South Florida, he was blessed to marry his high school sweetheart, Angela. They have been married for 23 years and have three children: Jessica, Joshua, and Jackson.

Mrs. Christina Longo, Pediatric Speech Language Pathologist, Math and Reading Pull-Outs

Mrs. Christina Longo joined PCA two years ago as a Pediatric Speech Language Pathologist. She is a graduate from Nova Southeastern University with a Bachelors of Science degree in Psychology and Communication Science, and a Masters of Science in Speech-Language Pathology (SLP).

She has 10 years of experience in both medical and clinical settings. Seven of those years have been devoted to strengthening her skills in pediatric intervention.

She maintains national certification of clinical competence through the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association and is a certified SLP Early Steps provider for the state of Florida.

Mrs. Longo has experience as a guest lecturer at the university level to teach about the development of speech and language, as well as the role of a SLP in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU).

She is married and has three young children.
Ms. Lola Siewdass Mitchell, K1

Ms. Siewdass has been teaching K1 at PCA for four years. She has been a member of Potential Church since 2008, and also serves in the First Impressions ministry. Her daughter, Jaela Skye, also attends PCA.

She is passionate about teaching young children about the love of Christ, and is known for her warmth and dedication to each of her students.
Ms. Jamiee Almazan, K1
Ms. Jamiee Almazan has been working at Potential Christian Academy for two years. She has been attending Potential Church for the past 19 years, helping in different areas of ministry.

Ms. Almazan is in the process of earning a degree in occupational therapy. She loves working with children and helping them reach their God potential.

Mrs. Ry’Ann Sterban, K1
Mrs. Ry’Ann Sterban joined PCA last school year as a preschool teacher assistant, and returns this year to teach K1 again.

Originally from Nashville, Tennessee, Mrs. Sterban and her husband, Pastor Tyler, moved to South Florida over a year ago. She has worked in childcare for over six years and has been in ministry since she was 18 years old. Along with her husband, she is also a youth pastor at Potential Church.

Mrs. Sterban has been married for six years and has two young daughters who also attend PCA.
Ms. Marie Weekley, K2
Ms. Marie Weekley joined PCA last year as a preschool teacher with a CDA credential and a love for teaching young children.
Earlier in her career, she worked at State Farm Insurance for seven years. Later, she earned a Medical Assistant degree and worked for a dermatologist before deciding to pursue a degree in preschool education.
Ms. Weekley has a 13-year-old son. She loves travelling with him as he participates in the sport of rodeo. She also has several nieces and nephews; they all enjoy spending quality time together.

Mrs. Krissi Okegbola, K2
Mrs. Okegbola has been a preschool teacher at PCA since 2017. She is a graduate of Florida Atlantic University with a Bachelor degree in Health Service Administration and minor in Business Administration.
She is excited to teach K2 again and share her love of learning with the students.
Mrs. Okegbola is a wife and mother of four. She also has one grandchild.
Mrs. Evie Irizarry, K2

Mrs. Evie Irizarry is a self-motivated and progress-driven K2 teacher. She began working at PCA last year as a K1 teacher, and is excited about working with K2 students this school year.

Mrs. Irizarry is a high level volunteer at Potential Church since 2014. She has a passion to serve others and keep God at the center of her life.

Mrs. Irizarry is married to her husband, Bernie, who also serves each weekend at Potential Church as a lead guitarist. Together, they have one son, Benjamin, who attends PCA and will be entering middle school this year.

Mrs. Nina Lopez, K2

Ms. Nina Lopez has been with PCA since last school year. She served as a kindergarten teacher assistant and loved the experience.

This year, she will be transitioning to K2 to work with our preschool program. Mrs. Lopez has a passion for ministry and young children. She is excited to combine these two areas and impart her love for Christ to the students.

Mrs. Lopez is also very involved at Potential Church where she serves in the missions ministry. She has travelled to impoverished countries on multiple mission trips to help the less fortunate.

She is married and has two young children who have attended PCA for the past three years.
Mrs. Janet Yera, K3

Mrs. Yera has been teaching preschool at PCA for the past 10 years. She holds a Child Development Associate certificate, as well as an Associate degree in Early Childhood Development.

She and her husband, Juan Carlos, have three wonderful children who also attend PCA. Christian education is a major part of her family’s life, and she is devoted to shaping young minds in the name of Jesus Christ.

Mrs. Linda Rodriguez, K3

Mrs. Rodriguez has been teaching for 25 years, and has been a preschool teacher at PCA since 2006. She holds a Child Development Associate credential and a National Child Development Associate credential.

Her passion is to educate children in a nurturing, loving, and safe environment so they could reach their God potential. She believes that each child is a unique creation from God.

Mrs. Rodriguez has been happily married to her husband, Randy, for 28 years. Together, they have one daughter, Priscilla, and one grandson.
Mrs. Sandy Lips, K3

Mrs. Sandy Lips is a returning preschool teacher at PCA. She has taught preschool for 17 years and is devoted to instilling a love of Christ to her students.

Mrs. Lips has dedicated countless hours to producing chapel plays, as well as music, health, and science fairs for the school.

Originally from North Carolina, she moved to South Florida as a child and studied at Miami Christian College and Moody Bible Institute. Prior to becoming a preschool teacher, Mrs. Lips was a professional studio photographer.

She has been married to her husband, Allen, for 47 years, and has two daughters and four grandchildren.

Mrs. Carolina Calbo, K4

Mrs. Calbo has taught preschool for 16 years, 13 of which have been at PCA. She is also the aftercare director and PCA Summer Camp director.

She holds a CDA credential and is passionate about nurturing future generations and teaching them about Jesus Christ.

Mrs. Calbo has been married for 20 years to her husband, Rob, and has three wonderful children who have all graduated from PCA with high honors. Her son is starting college in Georgia this fall, and the two younger daughters are in high school.
Mrs. Diane Buck, K4

Mrs. Diane Buck has been a teacher for over 30 years in early childhood education. It has always been important to her to teach in a Christian School so that she can openly share her love of Jesus with her students.

Mrs. Buck attends Potential Church along with her family. She serves on the missions team, the pastoral care team, and served as a teacher for Kids Camp 2018 and 2019. She is very excited to continue teaching and getting to know her students this school year.
Mrs. MaryAnn Gory, Kindergarten

Mrs. MaryAnn Gory is a veteran educator who has taught Kindergarten at PCA for more than 30 years.

Ms. Gory has poured into countless students and families, leading multiple programs geared to expanding children’s vocabulary and reading ability, while also focusing on core subject areas that students need to master beyond kindergarten.

Additionally, Ms. Gory has spent hundreds of hours coaching other educators on best practices in early elementary education and has become a mentor to so many.

Mrs. Paula Mackey, Kindergarten

Mrs. Paula Mackey has been teaching at PCA for the past 18 years. She holds a BS degree in Educational Studies from Grand Canyon University, as well as a CDA certificate.

She has a unique ability to teach young children, inspiring them to do their best and reach their God potential.

Mrs. Mackey got married and started a family over 30 years ago. A widow, she is also the mother to two adult children, Jamal and Jenna, who are both PCA alumni.
Mrs. Arlene Jordan, Kindergarten Co-Teacher

Mrs. Arlene Jordan is a certified teacher in grades 5-9. She worked at a public elementary school as a permanent substitute teacher and also handled pull-outs.

She holds a BS degree in Science majoring in Psychology with a minor in Speech. Additionally, she earned a CDA credential and has experience teaching preschool. She feels called to share the gospel with the next generation.

Mrs. Jordan is married to her husband, Dan, for 13 years and has two children. Her oldest daughter is in college at Florida State University and the other attends 5th grade at PCA.

Ms. Jenna Mackey, 1st Grade

Ms. Jenna Mackey is a PCA alumnus who has been working at PCA since 2012 as a substitute teacher, aftercare teacher, co-teacher, and summer camp counselor.

This year she’s taking on the role as a teacher of a self-contained 1st grade classroom after she co-taught with Mrs. Perez in 1st grade last year.

Ms. Mackey attended the University of South Florida where she received a Bachelor of Science degree in Health Science in 2015.
Mrs. Monica Perez, 1st Grade

Mrs. Monica Perez is entering her third year of teaching at PCA. She has over 10 years of experience in education.

She graduated from Nova Southeastern University with a Masters in Diversity Education with a Reading Endorsement, and also taught language arts for 10 years.

In 2010 she married her best friend, Lionel, and they have two young children, both of whom attend PCA. She and her family attend Potential Church.

Mrs. Melissa Perez, 2nd Grade

Mrs. Melissa Perez has 13 years of elementary teaching experience and has been a teacher at PCA for the past seven years. She earned a degree in Elementary Education from Trinity International University.

Her goal as an educator is for all of her students to feel confident in themselves and have fun while learning. She also believes that the key to academic success happens through providing positive reinforcement, setting high expectations, and establishing a classroom environment where students feel safe to learn from any mistakes.

Mrs. Perez has been married for 10 years and has two daughters, Alyssa and Ava, who are both PCA students.
Mrs. Marie Grant, 3rd Grade

Mrs. Grant has been a teacher at PCA for 10 years and is on her fourth year of teaching 3rd grade at our school.

She holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of the West Indies and a Masters degree from The University of New Orleans. She also has a CDA certificate.

She is married to her husband, Alan, and they have two children - Joshua and Lacy - both PCA students. Mrs. Grant loves to spend time teaching, and spending quality time with her family. She also enjoys reading and listening to music.

Ms. Ashley Shearer, 4th Grade

Ms. Ashley Shearer joins PCA this year as a 4th grade teacher. Previously, she worked in PCA’s Summer Camp for five years as a teacher, and loved the opportunity to work with our students and staff.

Ms. Shearer graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education and a concentration in Early Childhood from Pensacola Christian College.

She greatly enjoyed having the opportunity to influence children to know and love Christ.
Elementary Teachers

Mrs. Jennifer Todd, 5th Grade

Mrs. Todd is returning to PCA after having taught 5th grade at our school two years ago.

She has been a Florida state-certified teacher for eight years, working with both elementary and middle school students.

Mrs. Todd is a product of Christian school education and places a high value on students’ spiritual growth, as well as their academic success and achievements.

She has a Bachelor degree in social work and has also started a Master’s in American government and history from Ashland University.

Mrs. Todd spends her time loving on her favorite people – her husband, Brian, and their three daughters: Madison, Savannah, and Kielee, all students at PCA.
Mrs. Abigail McCaw, Elementary Music

Mrs. Abigail McCaw joins PCA this year as our elementary music and Spanish teacher.

Mrs. McCaw started singing at church at a very young age and began taking singing lessons when she was six years old. She discovered her love for teaching while teaching a children’s choir at a local church. She grew a strong desire to educate, nurture, and to simply be an example to children. Since 2013, she has been directing music with kids and leading worship.

She graduated with a Bachelors of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies from Florida Atlantic University and started her Master’s in Education at Southeastern University.

Mrs. McCaw is passionate about raising up strong leaders for the next generation. Her desire is to see her students have an true encounter with the Lord, especially through worship.

She is married to the love of her life, Stevyn, for almost nine years. They have two boys: a four-year-old and a one-year-old.
Mrs. Diana Muneton, Teacher Assistant

Mrs. Diana Muneton joined PCA last year as an assistant preschool teacher. She has 11 years of experience leading youth ministry at church for middle school, high school, and college students.

She studied at DeVry University and earned her Bachelor degree in Business focused on Project Management. Mrs. Muneton worked in full-time ministry for nine years coordinating retreats, leadership academies, and church volunteers.

Mrs. Muneton has two children, Mikayla and Milan, who both attend PCA. She is excited to assist elementary teachers this school year.

Mrs. Cindy Burkett, Teacher Assistant

Mrs. Cindy Burkett has a long history with PCA. In her current capacity, she is returning to our school as a 3rd grade teacher assistant.

She was previously employed by Junior Achievement of South Florida as Chief Operations Officer. Ms. Burkett has a Master’s Degree in Elementary Education.

She has previous elementary experience at PCA, as well as administrative and educational leadership.
Mrs. Ruth Hooper, Teacher Assistant

Mrs. Ruth Hooper has been homeschooling her children for the past 19 years. She is excited to join the PCA team as a Teacher’s Assistant for first grade.

Earlier in her career, she graduated from the American Musical and Dramatic Academy in New York with a certificate in Musical Theater. She has done extensive work on television and theater and toured with the Broadway musical, The Wizard of Oz. She is also a dancer, choreographer and singer.

Currently, she is serving on the Potential Church worship team and involved in the Dance group as well. Ruth is also a NASM certified health and fitness personal trainer, certified boxing and conditioning coach, and fitness group instructor.

Recently relocating from Southern California to South Florida, she supports her husband Gregory, who recently joined the staff of Potential Church as the Creative Pastor and member of the Executive Team. They have been married for 24 years and have four children and one granddaughter.
Mr. Stevyn McCaw, 7th Grade Homeroom, MS Bible, MS Music

Mr. Stevyn McCaw joins PCA this year as the middle school Bible and music teacher. He earned a Bachelors degree in Music from Florida Atlantic University, has a Professional Music Educator’s Certificate from the Florida Department of Education, and is currently pursuing a Master’s degree in Biblical Studies from Liberty University.

Since middle school, Mr. McCaw has felt a strong calling to serve the body of Christ. Over the past 11 years, he has worked in schools and church ministry, directing music, leading worship, and sharing the Word of God.

Mr. McCaw loves to worship and engage in theology, but most importantly, he is passionate about God’s love shining through his life and encouraging his students to shine bright for Jesus as well.

Mr. McCaw has been married to his best friend, Abigail, for nine years, and they have two young boys, David and John.

---

Mrs. Elisa Mallol, 6th Grade Homeroom, Elementary STEM, MS Science, 6th Grade Math

Mrs. Elisa Mallol joined PCA last year after being one of our PCA parents for several years. She brings with her a wealth of knowledge teaching several subjects in both elementary and middle school for over 10 years.

Mrs. Mallol has a Masters degree in Elementary/Bilingual Education and teaching experience in bilingual schools, primarily in the Dominican Republic, where she is originally from.

She has been married for 15 to her husband, Wascar, and together they have two children, Johan and Eileen, both PCA students.

---
Mr. Hakim Groomes, 8th Grade Homeroom, Elementary PE, MS History/Civics

Mr. Hakim Groomes joins PCA this year as our 8th grade homeroom teacher, elementary PE instructor, and middle school history and civics teacher.

Originally from Philadelphia, PA, he earned a BA in History from Millersville University and a M.Ed in Interdisciplinary Studies with a concentration in Exercise Science from Campbell University.

He is married to Shameka and together they have seven children: Sa'Mya 16, Hakim Jr. 14, Kiyah 12, Kaleb 10, Uriah 8, Ulani 5, and Dylin Rose 2.

He was the varsity Defensive Back Coach at Cooper City High School, and is a United States Army Reservist 12B.

Mrs. Zuly Alvarez, Elementary Math Enrichment, 7th Grade Math, 8th Grade Math

Mrs. Zuly Alvarez joined PCA two years ago and made a huge impact on her students.

She is certified in Elementary Education and English 6-12, is ESOL endorsed, and has completed all the courses in Exceptional Student Education required by the state of Florida. She recently completed her Master’s in Educational Leadership.

During her 20 years in education, Mrs. Alvarez has held many leadership roles, including School Advisory Council Co-Chair, Team Leader, Testing Coordinator, and Curriculum Resource Coach.

A New Jersey native, Mrs. Alvarez has lived most of her life in Florida. She currently resides in Pembroke Pines with her husband of 24 years and her two children, one of which is a PCA student.
Middle School/Co-Curricular

Mrs. Frances Eawaz, MS Language Arts, MS Drama

Mrs. Frances Eawaz is the lead teacher for Middle School and has been teaching at PCA since 2009. She earned a degree from FIU in 2002, and began teaching shortly thereafter. She is passionate about helping students understand God’s unique plan for them.

Mrs. Eawaz thoroughly enjoys teaching language arts and world history.

She is married to her high school sweetheart and has a son, Dillon, who recently graduated from PCA and is now entering high school.

Mrs. Eawaz enjoys traveling, reading, exercising, and spending time with her family.

Mrs. Joette Mendez, Library Media, Computers & FLVS Coordinator

Mrs. Mendez has been a teacher at PCA for the past nine years and has attended Potential Church for over 10 years.

She has more than 16 years of teaching experience, and holds a Master’s degree in Education.

Mrs. Mendez leads our middle school students and also teaches in the library and computer lab for elementary students. Additionally, she facilitates FLVS courses.

She has been married for 18 years and has two children: her son recently graduated from PCA and is now starting his first year of high school, and her daughter is a PCA student entering 6th grade.

She enjoys exercising, reading, and spending time with her family.
Mrs. Jennifer Diaz, Athletic Director

Mrs. Jennifer Diaz has been PCA's athletic director for nine years, bringing her experience in athletics to grow our dynamic sports program.

A graduate of Bryan College, she earned a BS degree Physical Education and Health. She has developed the athletic department with elementary and middle school sports for girls and boys from 2nd through 8th grade offering our students volleyball, flag football, cross country, basketball, soccer, and track.

Three years ago, she created the Small School Athletic League (SSAL) which has allowed us to partner with more schools to help students reach their God potential.

She is the mother of two boys. Luke is a PCA graduate and is now in high school. Her youngest son, Bobby, is an 8th grade student at PCA.

Ms. Kristena Mullins, Art

Ms. Kristena Mullins is PCA's art teacher. She has been with the school for the past eight years and has instilled a great love of art to our students. Ms. Mullins has been in love with art since her first set of crayons when she was a child.

Teaching at a small Christian school has been a huge blessing for her. Ms. Mullins has poured countless hours into her artwork, and also plays an integral role in PCA's musicals (spring and Christmas) and art shows.

She is also actively involved at church and always shares her love of Christ with others, particularly through prayer and Bible study groups.
Ms. Jackie Toombs, Preschool Co-Curricular and Cafeteria Director

Mrs. Jackie Toombs has been a teacher at PCA for the last eight years. She teaches preschool co-curriculars, including music, library, computers, and assists with art. Additionally, she runs all of PCA’s cafeteria operations, and handles special events.

After school, Ms. Toombs coaches cheerleading under PCA’s after-school sports program.

She has two children, Adam and Hannah, who are both in college. In her spare time, she loves to travel and watch her son play in his college football games.
Ms. Hannah Toombs, Preschool After-School Care

Ms. Hannah Toombs has worked for PCA for a few years, mainly as a preschool after-care teacher. She is also the middle school cheerleading coach.

Ms. Toombs earned a CDA degree and is a certified preschool teacher. Currently, she is finishing a bachelor’s degree at Broward College, and will continue her education at the University of Florida to pursue a career in pediatric medicine.

Her hobbies include coaching competitive cheerleading at the high school level, going to the beach, and spending time with animals.

Mrs. Tori Albano, Preschool After-School Care, Cafeteria

Mrs. Tori Albano joins PCA this year as a preschool aftercare teacher and cafeteria assistant.

She has been attending Potential Church for five years and is highly involved with the youth ministry.

Mrs. Albano has a passion for Jesus, children, and ministry. She’s excited to have the opportunity to teach children about Jesus.

Both she and her husband are currently working with the youth ministry and pursuing pastoral roles.
Ms. Cortney Correa

Ms. Cortney Correa joins PCA as an after-care teacher this year. She will be working with our elementary students. She will monitor homework time, encourage students to engage in reading, and supervise playtime in the playground.

Ms. Correa also serves faithfully at Potential Church as a 6th grade youth squad leader.

Ms. Shenerra Sawyer, Elementary After-School Care

Ms. Shenerra Sawyer joins PCA this year as an aftercare teacher. She will be working directly with our elementary students, helping with homework, and keeping students engaged in afterschool learning and playtime.

Ms. Sawyer attends Potential Church and serves faithfully in the church’s finance ministry. She enjoys utilizing her time and talents to help enlarge the ministry.
potential
CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

12401 Stirling Road, Cooper City, FL 33330
954.434.1550   |   ilovepca.com