Wednesdays from 12:30—1:15pm - $100 per quarter

PCA's Hip Hop Class is offered in Quarters 1 through 4 and is led by Mrs. Rebecca Germain. Our hip-hop dance instructor will be teaching a high energy class that uses the latest sounds and movements, breaking down steps and techniques that emphasize style and personality. Rebecca has choreographed and taught hip-hop for over 10 years, studying under renowned instructors at the Broadway Dance Center in New York. She has performed on many popular stages, such as "The Apollo," BET, and Madison Square Garden. Hip-Hop is never done small and students will be encouraged to step outside of the box and dance big, fusing their potential inside and out. Please contact Rebecca Germain for more information at rebecca.a.germain@gmail.com.

Thursdays from 12:30 to 1:30pm - $110 per quarter

PCA's Culinary Kids Class is offered in Quarters 1 through 4 and is led by instructor Mika Rowley. She is passionate about food and the creativity used to make cooking and baking fun. Preschool and students will learn basic culinary skills, such as: mixing batter in bowls, rinsing and draining fruits and vegetables, pouring liquid ingredients, mashing foods, using cookie cutters, whisking, knife skills, using a dull butter knife, measuring liquid and dry ingredients, food tasting, hand-washing, and so much more! Ms. Mika believes that learning a new skill must include having fun. This class is a fun-filled, creative and energetic environment. For more information, please call Ms. Mika at (954) 297-7267.
